THE advance bookings
at the fashionable
and high priced hotels
this Spring were way
ahead of anything known before in years. Few hotels of this class in New England had, the first of June, anything to spare for July and August. But the indications are that the smaller, medium priced hotels will not enjoy so prosperous a season. The reason seems to be that the thousands of American travellers who usually visit Europe at this time of the year are patronizing the first class hotels because they MUST go somewhere;
but the general business depression on account of the war causes thousands of persons of moderate circumstances, who would patronize the smaller hotels to conclude that they will take no vacation at all.

THAT Who's Who is a bright idea and is greatly appreciated as an aid in getting acquainted with the "new ones" in the summer colony is manifested by the large number of books sold every year.

Like the newspapers and other publications we could not print such a reliable and complete social register without the revenue from our advertising pages.

You have no idea how much it helps when you mention: "I saw your ad in Who's Who." Advertisers spend so many thousands of dollars for which they never see any traceable return that they are not only pleased, but elated whenever they get such a statement, and can see that their advertising is doing them some good. They usually tell us when a good sale is made that way, and we are not slow to extend the utmost courtesies we control—because we believe in reciprocity!

THE group of shops at Magnolia, which are the most attractive along
 the New England coast, is to be enlarged by the addition of several new stores in 1916. Mrs. Annie M. Ryan, proprietress
 of the Seaside Laundry,
 has surprised everybody
 by purchasing for $17,000
 the property between the Colonnade and the Oceanside Hotel from the Glouceater National Bank, and will erect a building in a style of architecture to harmonize with the Colonnade, with pergoda in front. The stores will be about 25 feet wide, with double entrance, so they can be divided into half-stores, meaning accommodations for from 20 to 40
 new shops, though she intends to build only part of them in 1915. This will greatly enlarge Magnolia's already firmly established reputation as the shopping centre of the North Shore.

SOME fear is expressed that business may be over-done with the constant increase of shops at Magnolia. We believe that the purchasing power of the North Shore is so large that it would support twice the number of shops now there, if the business is properly diversified. One of the prominent dealers who has been at Magnolia for several years said this Spring:
 "When B—— came here,
 a few years ago, he did eat
 into our business the first season or two, but now
 we are both doing more than we ever did."

MAGNOLIA! I think it is the loveliest, most beautiful spot on earth. Words can't begin to express my feelings — to describe my admiration — for that place. When I went there in June it was the worst day imaginable; a drizzle all day from early morning. But even under those circumstances it was beautiful — nothing could dim its charm. The bright green was everywhere, the rain drops glistening on the leaves — it was way beyond anything possible to even imagine. [— Enthusiastic exclamation of a New York woman who stops at the Ocean-side.]

Seeds with a Lineage

Lovers of gardens and grounds should know that at Raynes Park, London, England, Messrs. James Carter & Co. have the finest and most complete testing and trial grounds in the world.

Their equipment and the unique methods employed guarantee the quality of their seeds. For generations they have been cultivating, selecting and perfecting until Carter's Tested Seeds have reached the highest percentage of purity and germination.

In England, where the art of gardening is most highly developed, Carter's Seeds rank first. Ask any gardener with experience in Great Britain—he will know Carter.

In America, Carter's Seeds have achieved a tremendous success both on large estates, and in smaller gardens.

We import these seeds direct from Raynes Park and carry a complete stock at our Boston warehouses. We issue an American Catalogue, with all prices in American money. It includes selected varieties of Flower and Vegetable Seeds, with valuable directions for planting and cultivation.

If you are interested in upkeep of Lawn, Tennis Courts, or Golf-Course, write for the "Practical Green keeper." Every Championship Golf-Course in America is today using Carter's Tested Grass Seed.

Bay State Grown

Flowers, Shrubs and Trees are Best for New England Planting

Best simply because they are hardened to New England's climate. Grown as ours are in this rugged Bay State, they must be strong and sturdy to survive it. Anything that stands the test of our winters here will certainly grow and live on your grounds successfully.

Winter killing is a common trouble throughout all New England wherever flowers, shrubs and trees are planted, when other than New England grown.

Anywhere on the North Shore we can deliver by auto truck.

If anyone has a choice assortment of fine, strong New England grown stock — we have. Anything from the old-fashioned hardy flowers we all love so well, to the ornamental trees of goodly size.

You are welcome to our catalogue or booklet.

The Modern Newspaper

must be more than a mere purveyor of news. While this is of course the first essential of a metropolitan paper it must be supplemented by a careful presentation of matter that will be timely, interesting, instructive, and with enough variety to please all classes of readers.

SUCH A NEWSPAPER IS

The Boston Evening Transcript

and the new reader will after a short acquaintance with its many desirable features find that he has mis-spent neither time nor money in its reading

A PORTRAIT by us made in your home will possess a rare charm acquired by long experience at photographing people in their accustomed surroundings. In addition it will be well posed, well lighted and well finished.

INCIDENTALLY, there is no more attractive place to make a portrait than a country home, the green foliage and architectural backgrounds affording excellent opportunities for charming compositions, and there is certainly no other time when you and your children are in better health and have more leisure.

WHERE the natural backgrounds are not suitable, you will find us experts in working in a pictorial one of the Gainsborough or Reynolds type which will add a great deal to the artistic merit of the photograph.

NO extra charge over our regular studio prices is made for this service anywhere, and a sample portfolio of our work will be left upon request by mail or telephone.

We invite you to visit

“The most interesting store on the North Shore”

THE wonderful variety of our stock, with its wealth of unusual things, many of which are not to be found even in the largest metropolitan shops, the interesting Model Colonial Dining Room, with its display of silver and Colonial furniture, the attractive Cut Glass Room, and the cheery hominess pervading the whole establishment, have won for our Store the reputation of being “the most interesting Store on the North Shore.”

Located on the corner of Essex and Washington streets, in the heart of the business section of Salem, it is easy to reach from all points along the North Shore, either by trolley, train or motor. It is one of the show places of this section, and no matter whether you visit the North Shore for only a day or two, or for the whole season, a few hours spent at “Daniel Low’s” will prove a most enjoyable treat.

We invite you most cordially to make our Store your headquarters when shopping or sightseeing in Salem, without the slightest obligation on your part to make any purchases.

The Hathaway House

STANDS in the grounds. It dates from 1683, and is a very fine example of medieval architecture. It was bought at the request of The New England Society for Preservation of Antiques and is used for the Settlement club and classes. Admission, 10 cents.

The Shed Tearoom

in the garden
will be continued on the lines found
so successful
last year.

SALEM.

Salem is not a summer resort, and North Shore residents who hurry through its old and narrow streets, on the way to Boston in their automobiles, may not suspect that there is much of interest to attract their attention. But a visit will show that there is a great deal. Three institutions are well worth their first attention; the East India Marine Museum (with its extraordinary collection gathered by Salem's old sea captains in all parts of the world), the Essex Institute (with a splendid museum showing old colonial dress, customs and modes of life) and the Settlement Association in the House of Seven Gables (of exceptional interest to all who have read Hawthorne's romance "The House of the Seven Gables").

A drive through Chestnut St., upper Federal and Essex Streets and Washington Square will show some of the finest colonial architecture in the country (architects credit Salem with having more than any other one community). Guide books will point out the Hawthorne and witchcraft points of interest. Daniel Low's jewelry store (one of the largest in the United States), may fairly be included as one of Salem's "institutions" worth visiting. Miss Symond's studio of plastic art is unique and the Old John Ward House which she occupies is very interesting.

Salem is a city of 47,000 population, with considerable and diversified manufacturing interests; and excellent retail stores and an unusually large number of homes owned by their occupants.

A CORNER OF THE SHED TEA ROOM

THE SHED TEA ROOM

was built last autumn back of the grape arbor, in the grounds of the HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES

It has a truly charming outlook on the old fashioned garden with the House of Seven Gables (1669) on one side, and the Hathaway house (1683) on the other and Salem harbor beyond.

In order to seem a natural feature in the garden and harmonize with the ancient houses, the exterior of the tea room was built like an old time shed, but the interior has all the attractive appointments of a modern tea room.

The Shed Tearoom will be run on English lines, which proved so satisfactory last summer, while the increased accommodation afforded by the new building will make it possible to offer a more extended menu.

The Shed Tearoom has its own entrance on Turner strvet, but visitors to the House of Seven Gables can enter it from the garden. It will open July 1st; hours from eleven to six. 54 Turner street, Salem.

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS & GARDENERS

WE wish to announce that we are now prepared to furnish plans and estimates for planting of Private Estates, Public Grounds, etc. Our work is all personally supervised by our manager, who, for the last eleven years, was superintendent of the so-called Spaulding Gardens of Beverly Farms. He also planned and planted the major portion of those gardens. The Spaulding Gardens have become so widely known for their many beautiful features that we believe it ample proof of our manager's ability to give patrons a first-class piece of work in every detail.

There is no job too large, or too far distant for us to give it our immediate attention. Greenhouse and Storage Pits for the storage of tender and half-hardy plants. We supervise and care for private estates, and guarantee expert pruning of fruit trees and shrubs. Gardeners, Care-takers and Handy Men furnished. In- and Out-door grown Flowers, Fruits and Vegetables in Season.

AUTO DELIVERY IF REQUIRED.

ALL KINDS OF BEDDING PLANTS.

We respectfully solicit correspondence from all those contemplating garden making or improvement of their private estates.

What Could Be More Desirable for a Summer Home?

IT has been said that the air is as sweet and pure in Essex as among the New Hampshire hills. Essex is an undeveloped region in the heart of the North Shore. We have properties all sizes for sale.

Write or telephone for an early appointment.

Our valuation is so low that property coming into town will materially reduce tax rate.

BOSTON, MASS

SHOULD BALDNESS BE EXPOSED

OR IMPERCEPTIBLY COVERED AND THE HEAD PROTECTED

NOT the aspect of beauty alone, but the health as well, is to be considered in the question of head covering by Wigs or Toupees—and then again the question of imperceptibility of the covering, its fitness to the features, its proper shading and—last but not least—its wearing comforts must all be studied and attended to.

The performance of such work, correct from all its aspects, requires an amount of efficiency which can only be acquired by thorough theoretical training and years of practical experience and painstaking, conscientious work.

A Wig or Toupee, to be right, must be made first of all of healthy, hygienically treated human hair of the correct shade, then it must be light, delicately and yet durably constructed, and in such a manner that it is absolutely, or almost impossible to discover that artificial hair is taking the place of the natural growth.

Such Wigs and Toupees are a comfort and blessing to the wearer, because they improve his or her appearance and because they ward off annoying insect-bites, colds and neuralgia, the burning rays of the sun and the chills of the cold blasts of winter. Recommendations from ever so many wearers of my made-to-order products are my best and pleasing proofs.

HAIR FALLING CAN BE STOPPED.

M. Gersumky's method of electric treatment for weak hair has been approved by leading physicians. Separate rooms for ladies and gentlemen, insuring absolute privacy. TESTIMONIALS by most prominent Institutes. Send for Pamphlets.

AUSTRALASIA

WITHOUT doubt a number of Summer residents of the North Shore already are wondering where they can spend the coming Winter.

Seeing the Mediterranean resorts, also the near Orient, are out of the question owing to the European Conflict, and California together with Panama and the West Indies already visited, the problem before tourists appears a hard one.

There is, however, one section of the Globe which besides being free from the stress of the War, also has the advantage of having been little visited by the American Tourist.

We refer to AUSTRALASIA! that vast territory, comprising the huge continent of Australia—the land of the Golden Fleece—the wondrous scenic islands of North and South New Zealand, and the charming islands of the South Pacific, beloved by Stephenson and boasting of history as romantic, if not more so, than the West Indies.

The voyage from San Francisco can be made with perfect safety on elegant vessels flying the Stars and Stripes, and the return journey can either be made by the same route or via South America and even via South Africa.

The Panama Canal could be visited en route to San Francisco affording an opportunity to tell the antipodeans all about our American engineering triumph.

Let us draw up an itinerary for you, its variety will fascinate.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

It is our policy to approach only the largest or best business houses to advertise in "Who's Who Along the North Shore." Anyone who is familiar with business houses in this vicinity will see that in nearly every case the leaders in a given line of business are the ones represented in these pages. This is eminently true that in most cases it would be presumptuous in ourselves to guarantee or endorse their reliability.
